

Discuss with your friend what you'd like to include in this month's backpack. On a separate sheet of paper, draw an open backpack and fill it with the study materials that you'd like to donate. Then, fill out the donation form, indicating the names, quantity and color of the items that you have included in the backpack.

III. Interview and Report: Market Research

Suppose you are doing your summer internship at a marketing company. You are asked to conduct an Internet user survey. Your task is to interview at least five students on their Internet surfing behavior, and then write a report based on your interviews.

Step 1: Walk around the classroom and interview one student at a time. Ask him/her the following questions and record the answers in the interview form.
